

Unleashing the Power of Partnership for Learning

Inspiring Vermont youth to innovate, collaborate, and lead change in education - in partnership with adults - for over a decade

Please help us welcome Amie Conger to the UP Team!

Amie Conger named UP Program Director

Amie comes to UP for Learning after serving as Assistant Principal for the past eight years at two Vermont middle schools. Amie will focus on establishing new statewide initiatives and supporting UP's middle school programs.

Amie's career experiences include being a middle school teacher, administrator, and leadership coach, adjunct professor at St. Michael's College, a small business owner, and even served as Events Manager for the NYC Marathon! A strong believer in providing rich, multi-faceted learning opportunities, Amie has diligently worked to create new opportunities for students that are relevant, engaging, and student-centered. Amie thrives on being active and exploring nature with her two boys, Lokai and Grady, and her husband, David.
